Commodore's Message

The best of health and happiness from the Board of Trustees to all LFYC members and their families. We each also wish to join all Club members in expressing our appreciation for the two years of hard work and fortitude expended in dedication to LFYC by Commodore Patti Owens and Trustees Pete Garland and Ray Essig. To them and the members who unselfishly gave their time to chair committees and to help support LFYC's myriad activities--Thank You.

Much of the business we discussed at our January Trustees meeting was routine. Each Trustee had chosen three standing committees to oversee in December and in January reported the names of those members who had agreed to chair them. A look at the PORTHOLE's "Ready Reference" page will give you a quick run-down of the new chairpersons and which chairs remain unfilled. Contact any one of the Trustees if you would like to chair an open committee, the chairperson if you'd like to help out on a committee. No offer of help is ever turned down.

Setting up a calendar for the first half of '85 was also accomplished. After the Eckenrodes and Russos shepherded in 1985 with such style with their New Year's Eve Party, Phil Schiff and Kal Buda immediately started gearing-up for their annual SUPERBOWL SUNDAY extravaganza on Jan. 20. CHAMPAGNE BRUNCH, when the seven Trustees put out a sumptuous spread for the membership, will be held Feb. 24. Ginny Conk, Trustee in charge of social for '85 is cooking up an OPEN HOUSE/GAMES NIGHT tentatively scheduled for March 24. SEMI-ANNUAL MEETING is scheduled for Friday May 17 and LFYC CLEAN-UP DAY for Sat. May 18. Trustee Tom Sinclair has his Multi-Year Planning Committee scheduled to deliver its recommendations to the membership on the up-grading and rejuvenation of the Club' properties and buildings at the Semi-Annual Meeting.

To follow-up on business from the Dec 7 Annual Meeting: a strongly worded letter was sent certified mail to the legal firm and attorney representing LFYC's desire to have deed restrictions removed on the Yacht Club Drive property--no response has been received since its receipt 12/18/85. John Bannat's and Pete Garland's committee to study the feasibility of continuing to run Regatta as our major LFYC fund-raiser is scheduled to meet within the month.
